Giovanardi al Tom Esce "Il mio stile"

Radio

Sarà ospite di Guaitamacchi per "Rock files live!" in onda lunedì 15 giugno. Ma c'è anche Poggipollini Nuovo appuntamento con i "Rock files live!" di LifeGate Radio: ospite del giornalista e conduttore Ezio Guaitamacchi è Mauro Ermanno Giovanardi, già voce di una delle band milanesi più amate degli ultimi vent'anni, La Crus.

Stasera alle 22 presenta "Il mio stile", la sua nuova opera solistica al Tom-The Ordinary Market in via Molino delle Armi, angolo via della Chiusa, a Milano (apertura porte alle 21).

In apertura di serata Fede Poggipollini, storico chitarrista di Ligabue, farà ascoltare a sua volta estratti dal suo album "Nero". Il programma, registrato live, verrà riproposto agli ascoltatori su LifeGate and Sound, il canale musicale di LifeGate fruibile online, in fm e su app, lunedì 15 giugno.

«Dopo anni di elaborazione ho trovato la mia chiave di lettura - ha spiegato l'artista - Malsana, ruvida, ispirata. Maledettamente punk. Ed è una scelta precisa che sposta necessariamente le coordinate. Questo album è pensato come un film a episodi coi colori della nouvelle vague e del cinema di Quentin Tarantino". Per l'occasione il cantautore ha utilizzato "un combo di fiati più ricco del solito - con Max Zanotti al trombone, Davide Ghidoni alla tromba e Gabriele Bolognesi al sax e ai legni - e la scelta di non usare più l'orchestra d'archi, ma un quartetto vocale di prim'ordine che ha reso il tutto più fresco e originale. Le parti dei violini, sono affidate ora alle voci di Paul Rosette, Sherrita Duran, Silvio Pozzoli e Barbara Cavaleri". Molte le suggestioni di questo "film per le orecchie" (per rubare un'espressione a Frank Zappa). Il singolo "Quando suono" evoca Serge Gainsbourg, ma l'unica cover del disco è di Léo Ferré ed è proprio "Il tuo stile". Morricone echeggia in "Aspetta un attimo", "Se c'è un Dio" e "Come esistere anch'io" sono moderne preghiere profane dagli accenti quasi Gospel.

Per assistere alla serata - a ingresso libero sino a esaurimento posti - consultare le modalità di partecipazione e compilare l'apposito form sul sito www.lifegate.it.

Body Count Un ritorno alla grande

MUSICA Per gli appassionati di crossover e dintorni è un piccolo grande evento. Perché sul palco del Live di Trezzo si terrà stasera l'unica data italiana dei Body Count, famoso gruppo metal rap americano, guidato dall'icona Ice-T (ore 20.45, euro 35). Una band controversa e discussa, ma di fortissima presa, molto popolare nei primi anni Novanta, di nuovo in tour con l'album "Manslaughter", uscito lo scorso anno.

Tutto all'italiana, invece, l'appuntamento coi Rock Files Live! al TOM.The Ordinary Market. Per l'occasione sul palco ci sarà Mauro Ermanno Giovanardi, cantautore raffinato ed eclettico, che presenterà l'ultimo cd "Il Mio Stile". Ad aprire la serata lo storico chitarrista di Ligabue, Federico Poggipollini, con le canzoni di "Nero" (ore 22, ingresso libero con prenotazione obbligatoria su www.lifegate.it). Hard rock all'Alcatraz con gli Extreme, che festeggiano i 25 anni del loro album più celebre, "Pornograffiti" (ore 20, euro 40.25). DIEGO PERUGINI
